SPIRAL

SPIRAL is a series about law, as men and women experience it in today's legal system, at the heart of the Paris Court.

Driven by a young, caring, idealistic deputy public prosecutor; a forthright, incorruptible judge; an ambitious lawyer who is as attractive as she is ruthless; and a team of homicide detectives lead by a female captain known for their professionalism and their strong methods, the series explores the ins and outs of the system, justice, and power.

They work and cross paths on court cases based on real facts. As reality spirals out of control for each character, the boundaries between private and professional lives become increasingly blurred. With its nail-biting suspense, its constant tension, Spiral is a furiously-paced crime series.
